

GUIDE TO BULLETINS

This series of information bulletins provide updated information and assistance to help staff and agencies assist Service Users during this unprecedented time.

The bulletins are mainly drawn from Government and Statutory sources and readers should access these for further information. They will be regularly updated to ensure accuracy as announcements are made. Please be aware that announcements may be made as often as hourly at present, therefore readers should check the date stamp on each bulletin before disseminating information which may be out of date.

Please see an outline of the information contained within each information bulletin:
